CENTRALIA MUNICIPAL DOCKET CHANGES FOR AUGUST AMID COVID-19 PANDEMIC, AND FUTURE PERMANENT CHANGES

Columbia, Mo. – Due to COVID-19, all cases currently set on the Centralia Municipal Docket for Monday, August 17, shall be moved to the next docket, set for Monday, September 21. That docket will be held in the Boone County Courthouse in Columbia. Parties and attorneys should expect to get notice of their new court date. The Centralia Municipal Building is still open and its offices will remain open at this time should someone want to pay for a ticket through the month of August. There are two ways to pay online:

For outstanding costs already owed: <https://www2.courts.mo.gov/pbw/search.do?execution=e1s1>
To “plead and pay”: <https://www.courts.mo.gov/page.jsp?id=1886>

It is also announced that starting in September, Centralia’s Municipal Docket will be heard in the Boone County Courthouse in Columbia, and will no longer be heard in the Centralia Municipal Building. This plan has been in place for several months and is not related to COVID-19. Effective September 1, parties will no longer be able to pay their court costs or fines in Centralia. Parties will need to pay in person at the Boone County Courthouse, or online at:

For outstanding costs already owed: <https://www2.courts.mo.gov/pbw/search.do?execution=e1s1>
To “plead and pay”: <https://www.courts.mo.gov/page.jsp?id=1886>

For information please contact the Centralia Municipal Office at 682-2139 or Boone County Circuit Clerk at 886-4000.
